

Get involved in research that will shape the future for deaf young people

READY (Recording Emerging Adulthood in Deaf Youth) is a long-term research study, following young people who have a hearing loss as they become independent adults.

If you are 15–18 and you have a hearing loss or see yourself as deaf, then we want to hear from you.

Find out more and apply:

www.manchester.ac.uk/thereadystudy
ready@manchester.ac.uk

This code will take you to more information in written English, BSL or Sign Supported Spoken English. It will tell you how to get in touch with us and what to do next.

This study is run by

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

Funded by

This study has been approved by the University of Manchester Research Ethics Committee, Ref: 2019-4903-10668. The National Deaf Children's Society is a registered charity in England and Wales no. 1016532 and in Scotland no. SC040779. A0075c